  - a. Seek to achieve excellence in the management and delivery of the catering services for which they are responsible and seek to encourage the pursuit of excellence by others
  - b. Accept that they have a duty to develop their own knowledge and understanding of their profession and actively seek opportunities to improve their competence, by participation in the educational programmes of the Association and those offered by other organisations and institutions
  - c. Share their professional knowledge and experience with other members of the Association, providing support and encouragement when this is likely to achieve beneficial change
  - d. Help all members of their staff to achieve their full potential by devoting time to coaching them and encouraging the acquisition of appropriate learning and qualifications
  - e. Take care to avoid bias and unfair discrimination in relation but not limited to gender, age, race, religion, disability, sexual orientation and background or prejudice in the planning and delivery of services, in their recruitment practices and in the day-to-day management of their staff
  - f. Identify and seek to prevent the acceptance of any proposals that are likely to lead to the reduction of service quality or safety
  - g. to a level where the quality of life or welfare of patients and other service users may be jeopardised
  - h. Strive to achieve the maximum efficiency possible in the management and use of resources, including active support for joint purchasing arrangements where these are shown to provide best value for money
  - i. Maintain staff training programmes and diligently operate food handling systems that ensure the food and beverage services, for which they are responsible, do not put the health, safety or well being of consumers at risk
  - j. Collaborate with other Health Care Staff, appropriate individuals and agencies in any enterprise that aims to improve the health and well being of those served and of the population at large.

CODE OF CONDUCT

4. The Hospital Caterers' Association further requires that members of the Association shall:

- a. Conduct their professional and private life in a manner which avoids the risk of bringing themselves or the Association into disrepute.
- b. Not exploit their membership or position within the Association for improper personal gain or benefit
- c. Accept the discipline of public accountability which requires that they meet and are seen to display the highest standards of transparency, probity and impartiality in all their dealings on behalf of their employer and the Association.
- d. Conduct their professional and personal relationships with other members of the Association in a manner which ensures that the work and standing of the Association is enhanced.
- e. Maintain the highest standards of professional conduct and integrity in all their dealings on behalf of the Association and as an individual with patients, staff, the public, and the media.

MEMBERSHIP CATEGORIES

Full Membership

5a. Membership of the Association shall be restricted to persons actively employed in Hospitals and/or Health Care Catering Management, or persons holding - Catering positions at AfC band 2 or above. Persons actively employed in Hospitals and Health Care Catering who in the opinion of Council are appropriately qualified and other Health Care professionals with appropriate qualifications and/or expertise, who are actively employed to manage food/fluid and nutrition for patients. All members must hold or be in the process of obtaining a professional qualification that is obligatory or customary to practice their chosen profession. In exceptional circumstances, persons with suitable experience may be admitted to membership at Council's discretion. Persons elected to membership under this rule are 'Full Members'.

5b. Members may retain their full membership status if or when they change positions to another discipline provided they are still employed within catering and their membership is continuous.

Associate Membership

5c. Associate membership of the Association shall be restricted to persons associated with providing goods and/or services to the Hospitals and Health Care Catering. Persons elected to membership under this rule are 'Associate Members' subject to the following conditions

- (i) At any one time one Associate Member (of the Association) per Branch may hold a Branch Officer position, as Branch Chairman, Branch Secretary or Branch Treasurer, but excluding the position of Council Representative. Associate Members of the Association may not hold a National Officer Position.
- (ii) Associate Members of the Association elected to a Branch Officer post under Rule 5c (i) shall be entitled to all rights and privileges at branch level of Full Membership while holding that position. All other Associate Members of the Association have no voting rights.
- (iii) Each Branch of the Association may have up to, but not exceeding 25% of its total membership (Full, Life, and Honorary) as Associate Members.

Guest Membership

5d. Guest Membership of the Association is designed as an aid to recruiting which shall be restricted to persons actively employed in Healthcare Catering and is offered to persons holding Catering Supervisory positions, who have appropriate qualifications and/or expertise, and who are actively employed to manage food and nutrition for patients.

Persons elected to membership under this rule will be referred to as "Guest Members". Such members will be able to vote on issues at branch level, but will not qualify to hold any level of officer post within the Association at branch or national level.

Branches may recruit Guest Members into their branch for up to one year or until the start of the next membership year on 1st November, not renewable and not extendable. Guest Members should be invited to join as Full Members prior to the start of the next membership year on 1st November. All applications for Guest Membership will be subject to approval by Council or Executive of the Association.

Note

Membership is free for this grade of membership for one year. Applications for membership will be processed in the same way as full membership. Branch Secretaries should keep a record of Guest Members.

Overseas membership

5e. Overseas membership is open to persons actively employed in Hospitals or healthcare catering management in their Country and who are appropriately qualified

Applicants for Overseas Membership will be required to provide details for the Association to obtain references of their employment and personable suitability for membership

In exceptional circumstances persons with suitable experience may be admitted at the discretion of the Associations Council.

When visiting Great Britain and Northern Ireland, there could be an opportunity to visit to attend a branch meeting in the nearest location to where they will be staying. This can be arranged by contacting the Honorary National Secretary. Overseas membership will have no voting rights at the Annual General meetings or any Branch meeting. They cannot become Honorary or life members.

6a. Full Members of the Association, who on the grounds of age or ill health retire from active participation in the provision of goods and/or services to the Healthcare Sector, shall at the termination of the subscription year, current at the date of such retirement, on application to the Honorary National Treasurer of the Association and on payment of a fee equivalent to the highest level of subscription then current, be entitled to become Life Members of the Association. Such members (referred to as 'Life Members') shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of Full Membership.

6b. Associate Members of the Association, who on the grounds of age or ill health retire from active participation in Health Care Catering Management, shall at the termination of the subscriptions year, current at the date of such retirement, on application to the Honorary National Treasurer of the Association and on payment of a fee equivalent to the highest level of subscription then current, be entitled to become Life Member of the Association. Such members (hereinafter referred to as 'Life Associate Members') shall be entitled to the privileges of Associate Membership but shall have no voting rights.

7. In addition to persons qualified to become Full Members, Associate Members, Life Members or Life Associate Members, within the immediately foregoing rule of the Association, At the General Meeting and on the recommendation of Council, a person may be elected to Honorary membership of the Association any person who in the opinion of the Association as expressed by resolution of the general meeting, has materially contributed to the achievement of the aims and objectives of the Association.

8. Every candidate for Membership of the Association shall be proposed and seconded by members of the Association. Applications for Membership shall be made to the Honorary Treasurer of the Branch of the Association and shall be forwarded by them with such information as may be required to the Honorary National Treasurer of the Association. The acceptance or rejection of applications for membership shall be processed by the Council or the Executive. Appeals will be at the sole and unfettered discretion of the Council, subject to the requirement of Rule 5 and 6.

CESSATION OF MEMBERSHIP

9. Any Honorary Member may resign from the Association by informing the National Secretary in writing of their intention to do so. Life, Full, or Associate members may resign from the Association by informing their Branch Secretary in writing of their intention to do so. Full and Associate Members are liable to pay their subscriptions in full for the year in which this resignation is received.

10. The Council may in their absolute discretion, cancel or reinstate the Membership of any Full or Associate and Guest Member of the Association. Provided a member paid their subscription according to Rule 14, they may be reinstated on application with no financial penalty. Lapsed Members will be considered for reinstatement on completion of an application and payment of the current annual subscription.

11. Without prejudice to the provision of Rule 10 above, if, in the opinion of Council, the conduct of a member (as defined in rule 49) is such as to render it undesirable to the interests of the Association that member should continue to be a member, (Honorary Members are subject to rule 12) the Council may determine their membership and expel them from the Association. Provided that the Honorary Secretary shall have notified forthwith the member, whose conduct is subject their observations there on. Any observations received from such member shall be reported to the Council by the Honorary Secretary. Before any vote is taken on the resolution the Council, may if it so desires, defer voting on a resolution to expel a member until they have appeared before them and shown cause why they should not be expelled.

12. The Membership of an Honorary Member of the Association shall not be determined under Rule 11 hereof, but the Association may by resolution in General Meeting and upon the recommendation of the Council, whose report shall include the purport of any observations received from the Honorary Member concerned, determine Honorary Membership granted to any person under Rule 7 hereof.

13. No person whose membership of the Association has been terminated under these rules, shall be re-admitted to the Association otherwise than in pursuance of a resolution of the Council, carried with not less than three quarters of the number of Members of the Council present voting in favour. No Honorary Membership shall be offered to any person whose previous membership has been determined by action under these rules, otherwise than by the Association in General Meeting on the recommendation of the Council, whose resolution to make such recommendations has been passed by a similar majority.

SUBSCRIPTIONS

14. The annual subscription payable by Full Members, Associate Members and Patrons of the Association shall be due to be payable on the first day of November each year, the amount due being in accordance with the current rates as determined in accordance with these rules.

- c. An Honorary National Secretary, Honorary National Treasurer, Assistant National Secretary to hold office for one year only, but eligible for re-election.

These post shall be nominated by Council from among the Full Membership of the Association and after appointment may be re-nominated for a further year as Officers of the Association with voting rights.

17. The National Chairman and Vice Chairman shall be nominated by Council for their year of office from among its own Members. The National Chairman so nominated may be re-nominated as National Chairman for a further year, but shall not thereafter be eligible for re-nomination as National Chairman until a period of two years shall have elapsed from the expiration of their last term of office.

The immediate past National Chairman may continue to attend Council and Executive for one further year in an advisory position with no voting rights on the Council or Executive. The immediate past National Chairman may be asked to undertake task on behalf of the National Chairman, this could include representing the Association at other national events held by other organisations either representing the Association or the National Chairman or both. The immediate past National chairman may continue during this year to lead or assist in completing projects that had been started in their period of office or projects approved by the Council from time to time. If the Immediate past chairman is the Council Representative for their branch they will retain the right to vote as the Council Representative.

18. No member shall be eligible for election as National Chairman from a Branch of which their immediate predecessor in office was also a Member.

19. The Association shall also at the Annual General Meeting appoint:

- a. Auditor(s) for one year who may be appointed in an honorary capacity or at fees agreed at the Annual General Meeting at the time of appointment.
- b. An Editor to hold office for one year only, but who will be eligible for re-election.

COUNCIL OF THE ASSOCIATION

20. The business of the Association shall be managed by the Council of which the President and Vice President(s) shall be ex-officio Members. The remaining full Members of the Council shall be Full Members nominated by the Branches of the Association and the Officers nominated by Council and elected at the Annual General Meeting. Each Branch of the Association shall, before the first day of February in each year, forward to the Honorary National Secretary its nomination(s) of one year, from the next Annual General Meeting, and according to the number of members at the 31 October preceding the submission of its nomination(s).

- a. A Branch with 75 or less Full, Associate, Life, or Honorary Members may nominate one member to the Council.
- b. A Branch with more than 75 but less than 151 Full, Associate, Life, or Honorary Members may nominate two members to the Council.
- c. A Branch with 151 or more Full, Associate, Life or Honorary Members may nominate three members to the Council
- d. The Branch whose sole Council Representative is also National Chairman shall nominate another Council Representative. The expense of this representative shall be paid for by the Council as provided for in Rule 27.

21. In the event of a Casual Vacancy occurring among members of the Council (other than ex-officio Members), the Council shall, if the vacancy arises through resignation, retirement or death of a Member nominated by a Branch, invite such Branch to nominate a person qualified to be a Member of the Council to fill the vacancy.

22. The Council shall have power to appoint for the period until the Annual General Meeting, a person to fill any casual vacancy in the office of Honorary National Secretary or Honorary National Treasurer of the Association.

23. The Council shall receive from the Honorary National Treasurer of the Association, information as to the income and expenditure, assets and liabilities of the Association and shall be satisfied that proper books of account are kept. They shall submit an audited statement of accounts and balance sheet to the Annual General Meeting in each year.

24. The Council shall appoint such Committees as they may think fit. They may also co-opt onto any Committee so appointed, persons who are not members of the Association. In particular the council shall each year appoint an Executive Committee to be responsible to the Council for the day to day administration of the affairs of the Association. This Executive Committee, of which the National Chairman, Honorary National Secretary and the Honorary National Treasurer of the Association shall be ex-officio Members, shall comprise only Members of the Association as outlined under Membership (2.1) in the Standing Orders for the Executive Committee. The Council shall also appoint members to the General Purpose Committee as outlined under membership (2.1) in standing orders for the General Purposes Committee.

25. It shall be the duty of the Council to take all such steps as may seem to them appropriate, to further the aims, objectives and interests of the Association. Without prejudice to the generality of this power, they may, in the name of the Association:

- a. By publications, meetings, lectures, demonstrations, or other similar means, promote the exchange and dissemination of information relating to health care catering or the activities of the Association.
- b. Arrange studies, hold examinations, competitions and award prizes, certificates and other awards related to any aspect of health care catering
- c. By joining with, maintaining liaison with, or securing representation on other bodies or organisations, seek to improve the status, rewards, and proficiency of Health Care Caterers.
- d. Propose amendments to the constitution and rules, to the Annual General Meeting and prepare such standing orders as deemed necessary.

26. The Council shall meet not less than three times in each year and shall cause proper minutes to be made of their meetings and the attendances thereat. The quorum for any meeting shall be 12 members present.

27. The travelling, subsistence and other expenses of Officers of the Association, members of Council and other members of the Association, properly incurred in the business of the Association, shall be reimbursed by the Honorary National Treasurer, subject to the approval of Council. If a Branch nominates more than one member to Council, it shall pay the expenses incurred by its additional nominees.

28. The income of the Association shall be allocated as the Council may decide between the funds held by the Honorary National Treasurer for the purposes of the Association. The Treasurer shall supply to the Council such information as to estimated or incurred expenditure as may be required.

29. Any funds remitted to a Branch of the Association and remaining in custody of the Branch, shall be the property of the Association and, subject only to the satisfaction of liabilities incurred by the Branch, be returnable to the Association on demand by the Honorary National Treasurer.

30. The Council may make and adopt such standing orders for the conduct of their business, as they may think proper within the provisions of these rules. In particular such standing orders shall provide, that a special meeting of the Council may be convened by any three Members of the Council, nominated by three different Branches, giving notice to the Honorary National Secretary of the Association, requiring them to call a meeting of the Council and specifying the subject of the meeting. Such standing orders shall further provide that the Chairman or other person presiding at any meeting of the Council, shall in the event of equality of voting on any issue, have a second casting vote.

GENERAL MEETINGS OF THE ASSOCIATION

- g. To elect auditors of the Association's accounts for the ensuing year.
- h. To determine subscription fees paid by Life, Full, Associate Members and Patrons of the Association.

- i. To receive nominations of Branches to the Council.
- j. To consider resolutions proposed under Rules 25 and 32 hereof.
- k. Such other business relevant to the affairs of the Association, as the President, or other person presiding at the meeting, shall permit, either as a matter of emergency or otherwise, at their direction. In such cases, the use of proxy votes shall not be allowed.

35. General Meetings of the Association, may be called upon notice being given, as prescribed in Rule 31 hereof, by direction of the Council and a General Meeting shall be similarly called by the Honorary National Secretary of the Association, on receipt of a requisition in writing, signed by 25% of Full Members of the Association, specifying the business which such General Meeting is to consider. It must be accompanied by a deposit of £1500.00 towards the expenses of such meeting, which amount, or any part thereof shall be returned if the General Meeting so called decides.

36. Fifty Full Members, present in person, shall form a quorum for any General Meeting.

37. At any General Meeting the President, or in his absence a Vice President, shall preside and in the event of neither the President nor a Vice President of the Association being present, the Members attending shall appoint one of their Members to take the chair.

38. Voting on resolutions put to a General Meeting shall be by show of hands by those Full, Life and Honorary Members who are present. Where a ballot has been approved by Council all Full, Life and Honorary Members will received a Voting form and may vote as follows:

- By sending the completed Voting form to the Honorary National Secretary by post not less than seven days prior to the meeting.
- Or by sending the completed voting form by email to the Honorary National Secretary from their registered email address not less than seven days prior the meeting.

BRANCHES OF THE ASSOCIATION

39. Each Branch of the Association shall appoint a Chairman, Honorary Treasurer and Honorary Secretary. Branches may elect one Associate Member to hold one Branch Officer post (excluding the Council Representative position), and membership rule 5c (iii) must be applied. Full, Junior or Life Members of the Association must fill remaining Branch Officer posts.

40. In addition to the appointments required to be made under Rule 39 hereof, each Branch may appoint a Committee from amongst its Members of which the Chairman, Honorary Treasurer and Honorary Secretary, shall be ex-officio Members. Any such Committee shall in the name of the Branch, be responsible for the management and administration of the affairs of the Branch, subject only to the general direction, issued by the Council of the Association

41. The Honorary Treasurer of a Branch, shall submit to the Committee of that Branch, or to such Sub-Committee as may be appointed for that purpose by the Branch Committee, details of all applications or membership, whether Full or Associate members or Patronage of the branch received by them in pursuant to Rule 8 hereof. In addition to the information required to be submitted by them to the Honorary National Treasurer of the Association, they may also submit observations made by the Branch.

42. The Honorary Treasurer of each Branch, shall forward to the Honorary National Treasurer of the Association, not later than 14 December in each year, two copies of the accountants' report of the Branch, made up to 31 October of that year.

43. Each Branch of the Association, shall hold an Annual General Meeting, between the end of the financial year and 14 January in each year. A copy of the minutes of such Annual General Meeting, shall be submitted to the Honorary National Secretary of the Association, no later than the first day of February following the meeting.

44. A Branch of the Association may make rules or standing orders for the regulation of their business. Such rules should not make any provision which, in the opinion of the Council, is contrary or inimical to the provisions of these rules. In particular, they shall not require the payment of a Member of the Branch of any sum additional to the subscription and entrance fee required by these rules.

45. If any rules are made by a Branch, a copy thereof shall be sent the Honorary National Secretary of the Association.

46. No new Branch of the Association, shall be formed without the consent of the Council, on the application in writing of not less than ten full members of the Association and with the following provisions:

- a. All existing branches affected by the proposed formation of the new branch should be informed in writing at the same time as the National Secretary on behalf of Council.
- b. After consideration of all the relevant matters, the Council shall only give approval to the formation of a new branch, if it agrees that it is in the best interests of the association.
- c. At least 5 Full Members who are in support of the formation of a new branch must transfer to form the new branch.
- d. The 5 Full members transferring to the new branch should also have support from at least 10 eligible new-members Full and Associate, who will become members of that branch.
Subject to rule 5c (iii)

47. If, in the opinion of the Council, the activities of a Branch are such as to be prejudicial to the standing, reputation or interests of the Association, the Council may after making such enquiry and receiving such representations as they may think proper, formally require from such Branch an assurance in writing, under the hand of the Chairman specified by Council, an assurance that such activities shall cease. In the event of a report to the next General Meeting of the Association they may, on the recommendation of Council and by a majority of three quarters of the number of persons present and voting, resolve that recognition of the Branch be withdrawn, if prejudicial activities have not ceased.

In the event of the withdrawal of recognition of a Branch, pursuant to Rule 47 the Honorary National Treasurer shall demand the immediate return of funds in the Branch Accounts to the National Account. As provided in Rule 29 no further allocations of funds shall be made to such Branch, until the resolution passed in pursuance of Rule 47 shall be rescinded by a resolution at an Annual General Meeting of the Association.

CONSTITUTION AND RULES, ALTERATIONS AND AMENDMENTS

49. In these rules the word 'Member' shall, where the context so allows, include Life, Full, Honorary, Associate and Guest Members of the Association.

50. In the event of any questions arising on the interpretation of the Constitution and Rules, the question shall be decided by the person presiding at the meeting, where the question is raised and their decision will be final and binding on all Members of the Association.

51. Any alteration or addition to these rules, shall be made by the Association in General Meeting, on the recommendation of the Council. Any resolution proposed by a member of a Branch of the Association, in accordance with Rule 35 hereof requiring such alteration or addition, shall be referred to the Council for report and recommendations. The rules that have been agreed shall be applicable at the beginning of the financial year following any such decision.

PATRONAGE OF THE ASSOCIATION

52. The Association offers two levels of Patronage, one for Individual Patronage to a specific Branch or a corporate Patronage which allows a company to have representatives to attend every branch of the Association

Individual patronage allows companies to have contact with and support activities of a named branch. It is the company that becomes the Patron of a specified branch for one year and the company can send any company representative to this named branch. While a different person from the company can attend each open branch meeting, only one representative can attend. Patrons will not be allowed to attend closed meetings or sessions which will be determined by each Branch. A company/Individual can become a Patron to more than one branch and must submit an application to each relevant branch with the appropriate annual fee.

Corporate Patronage allows companies or individual who wish to meet or maintain contact with members of the Association and support activities at branch level only. It is the company that becomes the Corporate Patron. This allows a company /individual to take out Corporate Patronage membership and allows a maximum of 2 company representatives to be allocated to each branch. Only one person from the company can attend an open branch meeting. Patrons will not be allowed to attend closed meetings or sessions which will be determined by each Branch.

Individual Patrons, Corporate Patrons or their representatives have no voting rights.

Honorary Patronage Any person who in the opinion of Council is appropriately qualified, or has suitable experience be admitted at Council's discretion as an Honorary Patron of the Association for one year. Persons awarded Honorary Patronage can attend branch events but have no voting rights.

53. If at a General Meeting of the Association, a resolution is passed calling for the dissolution of the Association, the National Secretary shall immediately convene a second General Meeting of the Association to be held not less than a month after the initial General Meeting to discuss and vote on the resolution.

If at this second General Meeting, the resolution is carried by a majority of the Full Voting Membership, the Council shall thereupon, or at such date as shall have been specified in the resolution, proceed to realise the assets of the association and discharge all debts and liabilities of the association.

The Council will then be responsible for the orderly winding up of the association's affairs and directing where the assets will go'
